IMPORTANT NOTICES REGARDING DEVELOPMENT PERMITS

1. The applicant or any person who claims to be affected by the decision of the Development Officer may appeal the decision to the Development Appeal Board. The appeal shall be made in writing, and shall be delivered either in person or by mail to the Summer Village office not later than 14 days after the Date of Issue of Notice of Decision.
2. Should an appeal be made against the decision, the development permit shall not come into effect until the appeal has been determined by the Development Appeal Board. Should the Development Appeal Board approve the issue of the Development Permit, the permit shall be considered valid from the date of the Development Appeal Board decision and subject to any Development Appeal Board conditions.
3. This permit is valid for a period of 12 months from the date of issue or the date of an approved decision of the Development Appeal Board. If, after 12 months, the development or construction has not been started or carried out with reasonable diligence, this permit shall be invalid.
4. This is a development permit only. It is not a building permit. The applicant is required to ensure that the proposed development or construction complies with all applicable municipal, provincial and federal laws, including but not restricted to the building code; electrical, plumbing and gas codes; and health and environmental regulations.
